CONFESSION OF SIN

Call to Confession 1 John 1:9

Corporate and Silent Prayers of Confession Psalm 25:6, 7, 11, 16-18

Remember your mercy, O LORD, and your steadfast love, for they have been from of old. Remember not the sins of my youth or my transgressions; according to your steadfast love remember me, for the sake of your goodness, O LORD! For your name's sake, O LORD, for I am lonely and afflicted. The troubles of my heart are enlarged; bring me out of my distresses. Consider my affliction and my trouble, and forgive all my sins.

Assurance of Pardon Psalm 130:7, 8

O Israel, hope in the LORD; For with the LORD there is steadfast love, and with him is plentiful redemption. And he will redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

During the night of his betrayal, our Lord Jesus instituted the celebrated sacred event marking the sacrifice of his body and blood called the Lord's Supper. He instructed His church to observe this sacred event until the end of the world. It is a continuous remembrance of the sacrifice of Himself in his death. By participating in what the Lord's Supper signifies, authentic believers have guaranteed to them all of the good consequences of Christ's sacrifice. This includes our spiritual nourishment and growth in Him and our participation in and fulfillment of duties owed to Him. The Lord's Supper is a bond and pledge of our unity with Him and with each other as members of His spiritual body.
