CALL TO WORSHIP

from Psalm 104

Rev. Andrew Hane

Bless the LORD, O my soul!
O LORD my God, you are very great!
You are clothed with splendor and majesty,
covering yourself with light as with a garment,
stretching out the heavens like a tent.

He lays the beams of his chambers on the waters;
he makes the clouds his chariot;
he rides on the wings of the wind;
he makes his messengers winds,
his ministers a flaming fire.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
may the LORD rejoice in his works,
who looks on the earth and it trembles,
who touches the mountains and they smoke!

We will sing to the LORD as long as we live;
We will sing praise to our God while we have being.
May our meditations be pleasing to him,
for we rejoice in the LORD.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!
Praise the LORD!

CONFESSION OF FAITH

based on 2 Corinthians 5:1-9

We know that if the tent that is our earthly home is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this tent we groan, longing to put on our heavenly dwelling, if indeed by putting it on we may not be found naked.

For while we are still in this tent, we groan, being burdened—not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee. So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him.

Yet Not I, But Through Christ in Me

What gift of grace is Jesus my Redeemer. There is no more for heaven now to give.
 He is my joy, my righteousness, and freedom, my steadfast love, my deep and boundless peace.
 To this I hold: my hope is only Jesus. For my life is wholly bound to His.
 Oh how strange and divine, I can sing: all is mine! Yet not I, but through Christ in me.

The night is dark but I am not forsaken, for by my side the Savior, He will stay.
 I labor on in weakness and rejoicing, for in my need, His power is displayed.
 To this I hold: my Shepherd will defend me. Through the deepest valley He will lead.
 Oh the night has been won, and I shall overcome! Yet not I, but through Christ in me.

No fate I dread, I know I am forgiven. The future sure, the price it has been paid.
 For Jesus bled and suffered for my pardon, and He was raised to overthrow the grave!
 To this I hold: my sin has been defeated. Jesus now and ever is my plea.
 Oh the chains are released, I can sing; I am free! Yet not I, but through Christ in me.

With every breath I long to follow Jesus, for He has said that He will bring me home.
 And day by day, I know He will renew me until I stand with joy before the throne.
 To this I hold: my hope is only Jesus! All the glory evermore to Him.
 When the race is complete, still my lips shall repeat, "Yet not I, but through Christ in me."

When the race is complete, still my lips shall repeat, "Yet not I, but through Christ in me."
 "Yet not I but through Christ in me."
